The two-mile automobile race, on Wednesday, backed the side to make it interesting. Unfortunately Hathaway's machine was in the shop and he did not participate or the result would have been different. The Go-Devil, driven by McDonald, of Moberly, won, and Gus Sonnen, the only other entrant, was second.

The Hudson Bear Cat arrived just before the race, but because of an accident just before leaving Moberly it did not enter. The Go-Devil assumed the lead from the start and Gus Sonnen never gained on the little red car. Sonnen's driving was sensational but his car evidently did not have the power to catch his opponent.
